REFLECTION

God loves every person. Whether it is the wicked Ninevites or the or the chosen people of Israel, or the millions who have yet to hear of Jesus, all are loved. Jonah, the reluctant prophet, obeyed God at last and preached repentance to the citizens of Nineveh. To his surprise, they repented! All of us must redirect our live if we are to know God. The gospel demands sorrow for sin and faith in the Good News (which is first of all the person of Jesus). For Mark, the sea of Galilee represents the edge of the pagan world and the place where evil must be defeated. One day, Jesus' disciples will preach the gospel to all nation; for now, however, simple people drop their work and leave their families to form the nucleus of the Church, a community with a mission to witness to and continue Jesus' saving acts. St. Paul reminds us that we have been called to a new way of life and a different set of values-Christ's values. We live in this imperfect world knowing that it will give way to God's total and during rule, becoming a new creation.

ST. AGNES (feast day Jan. 21st)

Little is known of this young woman who was most likely born during the 4th Century. She is a symbol of virginal innocence which is why she is most often depicted with a lamb. Due to her beauty she was approached by many men for her hand in marriage. She refused believing she was married to God. It was reported to the Governor that she was a Christian. She was brought before a judge, was condemned and then executed. She stands as patron saint for girls, gardeners and engaged couples.
