REFLECTION

Easter demands acceptance of a paradox-that a deeper dimension of life lies on the other side of death. Luke’s gospel tells of the fright and doubt of the disciples when Jesus appeared in their midst. They were afraid to believe the Good News, slow to accept the peace won by Christ’s wounds, taken aback by joy. Jesus persuades them that he is alive by eating before their eyes, a reminder of the meals shared in the past and of the Eucharist which would unite them in future. As scripture illuminated Jesus’ saving work for them, the liturgy of the word prepares us to plan, foretold in scripture and carried out by Jesus, invites repentance, Peter says in Acts. John’s letter calls us to the personal relationship of love and obedience with God which makes us perfect. Even now Christ, our sacrifice, pleads for us before the Father. Will we recognize Christ’s presence in our Eucharist and allow ourselves to be surprised by joy?
 (Sunday Mass Book)

SHARELIFE

Living the Gospel by helping those with addictions
Scarred by an abusive childhood, Andrew became addicted to hard drugs as an early teen. His next 20 years were spent in and out of jail and the hospital. He finally came to St. Michael's Homes, a ShareLife funded agency that offers a residential program for those struggling with substance abuse. Now sober and equipped with coping skills, Andrew is happy and building a new life. By supporting ShareLife, you're helping people like Andrew get their lives back on track.

April 22nd is the next ShareLife Sunday
