REFLECTION

As we near the end of the Church year, we are reminded once again that we can expect to be tested. Should we take today's gospel as a precise description of how the world will end? No; what must come will come—suffering is inevitable—but we should not be distracted from Christ's presence in our lives. The Temple will be destroyed, imposters will speak in Jesus' name—do not believe them. Through cosmic catastrophe and personal persecution the believer must trust. Our trials will be blessings allowing us to witness to Jesus, who will tell us what to say. Even if we are betrayed, we must remain faithful; God will not abandon us and, in the end, we will be graced with his life. Malachi prophesies that the day of judgement will be for the wicked a day of doom; but God-fearers can look forward to it with eagerness. Should we stop working because of rumors of Christ's coming? Paul reproves those Thessalonians who use this as an excuse for laziness; their worker-apostle paid his own way. Until Christ does come, let us act like responsible members of his community and of the world.

MESSAGE OF THANKS FROM CARDINAL COLLINS

Cardinal Newman's motto is cor ad cor loquitur, which means heart speaks to heart.

This phrase succinctly describes how to live a Christian life. It's not about "lips speaking to the ears" - what we tell others about our faith. Rather, it's the love we demonstrate through a heartfelt personal encounter, through which our one particular way heart speaks to heart is through our annual ShareLife appeal.

For the second year in a row, our parishioners raised $13 million for all you have done for the success of our campaign. From the hard work of our priests, parish staff and volunteers, to the selfless generosity of our parishioners, each contribution represents an act of love.

Your support of ShareLife is bringing God's love to those in greatest need, here in our archdiocese and around the world.

On behalf of ShareLife agencies and thousands of people they help, thank you.

Yours sincerely in Our Lord, Thomas Cardinal Collins

ST. ELIZABETH OF HUNGARY

Elizabeth understood well the lesson Jesus taught when he washed his disciples' feet at the Last Supper: The Christian must be one who serves the humblest needs of others, even if one serves from an exalted position.

Of royal blood, Elizabeth could have lorded it over her subjects. Yet she served them with such a loving heart that her brief life won for her a special place in the hearts of many.

Elizabeth is also an example to us in her following the guidance of a spiritual director.
