REFLECTION

In today's gospel, Jesus tells his humble followers that they are to be like salt (which is essential to life) and like beacons to the world. But they must remain faithful to Christ's message if they wish to be saved, their good works done for God's glory, not their own. In the midst of the world their lifestyle must witness to the life-bringing cross. St. Paul reminds the Corinthians, those seekers after wisdom, how he had relied only on Christ crucified in his preaching. The power of God was shown in his weakness, not in the logic or eloquence of his arguments. The psalmist pictures the attitudes and deeds of the good person who is a sign to the world. Isaiah lists those good works; sharing our goods as a concrete sign of love for our brothers and sisters, and working to end their oppression, blesses us with God's own presence.

With such deeds Christians will be the salt and light of the world.

THE LIGHT OF STEWARDSHIP

We must not be stewards with gloomy and sour faces, but ones that shine with the peace and joy of knowing we are beloved children of God. Pope Francis says that “we need smiling Christians, not because they take things lightly, but because they are filled with the joy of God, because they believe in love and live to serve.” Let us ask ourselves today, does our demeanor as stewards showcase the reality of God’s transforming love to others and welcome them into the parish in a spirit of true hospitality?

MANRESA

Jesuit Spiritual renewal Centre in Pickering

2325 Liverpool Road, 905-839-2864

St. Ignatius spent after his conversion in the caves of Manresa, a town in Northern Spain. Here in prayer and fasting he experience what was to become known as the Thirty Day Retreat.

Manresa is a renewal centre which offers an extensive list of weekend retreats, where retreatants come to deepen their understanding of their Christian faith and/or seek spiritual healing. At each weekend retreat there is also an opportunity to have a sacred conversation with one of our spiritual directors, plus an opportunity, if desired, for the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

Manresa is located on a beautiful twenty-one acre property with access to several walking trails on conservation lands. They have serviced The Archdiocese of Toronto from this property since 1949.

In addition to Spiritual Retreats being offered, Manresa also offers programs for Alcoholics Anonymous and Al-anon
