REFLECTION

Jesus does not wait for our invitation, but invites himself to be our guest. Zacchaeus, a tax collector is so anxious to see Jesus that he forgets his dignity and climbs a tree. The crowd is surprised that Jesus notices this man and impatient when he hurries him down and invites himself to the rich man's house. Zacchaeus is joyful but the crowd is taken aback by this instantaneous conversion. The man proves his sincerity by pledging both charity and restitution in abundance. Jesus is delighted to bestow the blessing of salvation on a house where no one was expected to be saved. This is the mercy and forgiveness of God who wants us all to be saints whose glory is Christ. (Sunday Mass Book)

ACTIVITY REPORT 2022

So far in 2022, we have made over 174 home visits providing food and clothing vouchers, beds and other assistance to some 64 families in our parish and the immediate surroundings consisting of 115 children and 141 adults.

Please find the full report on the church's bulletin boards and website with handouts at the back of the church.

Thank you for your ongoing support.

THANK YOU!

The Refugee and Outreach Committee would like to thank our fellow parishioners, our school communities, CWL and Knights of Columbus for your generous, and ongoing food, toiletries, and monetary donations. Because of these, our food room shelves are well stocked, and we have been able to continue to distribute food and toiletries on the last Saturday of every month, even during COVID. We are pleased to continue to accept any donations placed in the boxes in the Narthex, and appreciate your continued support.
