REFLECTION

Today's feast, older than Christmas, marks the showing of Jesus to the world. This revelation had once been limited to the chosen people of Israel; now it extends to all nations. In the persons of the wise men, the world comes bearing gifts to worship its King. The magi responded to signs, even to the most surprising sign of God's presence in the world, a little child cared for by its mother.

God manifests who he is in weakness and simplicity rather than in power. The psalm brings to mind Jesus' ministry to the needy; one day all humankind will worship and serve him as God's son. Isaiah speaks of the presence of God as a great light rising over the city of Jerusalem, drawing peoples from all over the earth out of their darkness. God's presence makes his people radiant, and praise to him wells up spontaneously. God's revelation of himself to the world is the great mystery of which Ephesians speaks; all of us without exception are called to be members of Christ's body and radiant signs of his glory.

ST. VINCENT de PAUL SOCIETY

This year our Christmas appeal was a great success. For 60 families their Christmas was a little brighter. We wish to express our appreciation and thanks to all of you for your generous response to the families in need in our midst. Blessings to each and every one of you in this New Year!

'The beauty of life is found in people who care

And the goods of life are given only to share

And we who are blessed with the ability to give

Just remember, not doing so 'may our God forgive'
