PAVING OF THE PARKING LOT

We have received approval to proceed with the paving of the parking lot on the land to the west of the church. There is a poster in the Narthex of what the parking lot will look like when completed. We have started submission of applications to the city for the permits to proceed, and expect to get these permits by mid April at which time we will go out to tender for construction. We expect the construction to occur during the summer and look to have it completed by the end of September.

REFLECTION

Today's liturgy shows us the height and depth of Jesus' life, from the triumphal entry into Jerusalem to his death on the cross a short time later. Paul's letter alludes to the victory of Easter and Christ's equality with God; Holy Week holds up to our contemplation the perfect obedience of this man who will die an abject death before being exalted as Lord of all creation. His good works are repaid with ill, much as Isaiah's servant song shows the ministry of God's disciple interrupted by persecution.

Both the first reading and the psalm describe prophetically Jesus' suffering, and both conclude with an expression of enduring trust in God's help. According to Matthew and Mark, Jesus prayed this psalm as he hung on the cross. Its cry expresses abandonment, but its ending asserts resolve to continue the work of praise in the assembled community. Every Eucharist associates us with Christ as he offers his sacrifice in our midst and continues his perfect praise of the Father.
