REFLECTION

Last Sunday, we were reminded of our duty to help one another repent; today, that we must forgive without measure—because we are all sinners, even as we are all united in Christ. Since we are one in him, our lives influence one another. The teaching of Sirach, about the necessity of forgiving without nursing resentment, anticipates the unlimited mercy demanded by Jesus in the parable of the unforgiving servant. In this parable, which resembles an oriental tale, a compassionate master cancels a huge debt owed by a wealthy servant. But the latter does not reciprocate when a fellow servant owes him a paltry sum and begs for further time in which to make payment. The punishment decreed for the merciless servant by an angry master brings home the truth that we cannot hope to receive God's mercy unless we forgive others as God has already forgiven us. Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive others, we pray to our Father. We must pass on the forgiveness we have received, or be condemned by our own lips.

THANK YOU

DID YOU KNOW THAT
You need not be on the verge of dying to receive the Anointing of the Sick ?

This is clear from the fact that the anointing and the prayers that accompany it have as a purpose the restoration of health.

Therefore, if you are not in immediate danger of death, but are infirm or aged, you can and should ask for the sacrament. Hence, it makes sense for young people to ask for this sacrament also, if, for example, they are about to undergo a serious operation. On such occasions they can combine the sacrament with a (general) confession; in case the operation fails, they want to go to meet God with a clear conscience.

Also, if you ever are in danger of death, either from sickness or old age, you should not delay receiving the sacrament.
