REFLECTION

God loves every person. Whether it is the wicked Ninevites or the chosen people of Israel, or the millions who have yet to hear of Jesus, all are loved. Jonah, the reluctant prophet, obeyed God at last and preached repentance to the citizens of Nineveh. To his surprise, they repented! All of us must redirect our lives if we are to know God. The gospel demands sorrow for sin and faith in the Good News (which is first of all the person of Jesus). For Mark, the sea of Galilee represents the edge of the pagan world and the place where evil must be defeated. One day, Jesus' disciples will preach the gospel to all nations; for now, however, simple people drop their work and leave their families to form the nucleus of the Church, a community with a mission to witness to and continue Jesus' saving acts. St. Paul reminds us that we have been called to a new way of life and a different set of values—Christ's values. We live in this imperfect world knowing that it will give way to God's total and enduring rule, becoming a new creation. (Sunday Mass Book)

2024 DONATION ENVELOPES

The 2024 donation envelopes are available for pick up in the Narthex. They are alphabetized within each tray.

Please be patient and ensure you are taking your own box. Please help in returning those boxes that are not yours to their original spots to save everyone's time. We thank you for your generosity and for following and respecting this guideline.

Do you feel called? The call of the disciples is so familiar to us that we tend to miss the wonder of the disciples' response, which was immediate and complete; they leave everything and follow Jesus. Can we do less if we feel that God is calling us to the priesthood, religious life or deaconate?

If you think that God is calling you to be a priest, religious, or permanent deacon, call Fr. Matt McCarthy, Director of Vocations, Archdiocese of Toronto at (416) 968-0997 or email vocations@archtoronto.org.

ORDINANDI SPIRITUAL BOUQUET

January 27 & 28, 2024

The Catholic Women's League invites everyone to contribute to our Annual Collection of Prayers for the intentions of the soon-to-be-ordained Priests, studying at St. Augustine's Seminary and the Redemptoris Mater Seminary, who will be ordained priests and will take their vows in 2024.

The Prayers are called a "Spiritual Bouquet". Some examples of prayer contributions are: saying the rosary, offering of masses, communions, Eucharistic Adorations, visits to the Blessed Sacrament. There is no cost involved, only your time.

The C.W.L. would like to thank you ahead of time for your generous prayer offerings towards the "Spiritual Bouquet." They look forward to receiving your prayers after mass at each of the exits of the Church.
