REFLECTION

The Eastern Church has always considered Jesus' baptism to be his first manifestation (epiphany) to the world. As Jesus leaves the water of the Jordan river, the Father claims him as dearly beloved Son and the Spirit rests upon him. Jesus is called to begin his work of reclaiming the world for God. The opening verses of today's Old Testament reading, a Servant song, foreshadow God's acknowledgement of his Son at the baptism and describe the work of that servant: to effect justice, share vision, and liberate everyone. Jesus' ministry fulfills Isaiah's prophecy as he liberates from social evils and through the cross, from sin itself. He is able to do this because he is filled with the power of the Holy Spirit. God acts through him to restore the world to justice and peace. The psalm evokes that time when God's glory will be fully manifested. Jesus' work will be complete when human liberation is the outward sign of our state as God's children, his chosen ones who delight him. (Sunday Mass Book)
