REFLECTION

"For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son." That profound sentence of love is the foundation of our faith. The Cross stands as the greatest sign of God's unconditional love given to the whole world through Jesus Christ. Just as the Israelites were healed by looking at the bronze serpent in the wilderness, we are healed and redeemed when we believe in Christ lifted up on the Cross. His sacrifice is not to condemn, but to save, offering us peace, mercy, and fullness of life. As followers of Christ, we are called to look to the Cross not only for our healing, but also as a model of love. The path to salvation and peace offered by the way of the Cross, requires us to emulate love and mercy to all, and to extend the same compassion and mercy we have received, to others.

Reflection adapted from Saskia Sivananthan, Surrey, BC—Living with Christ, September 2025.

Did you know that?

- ☞ Marriage (wedding) is a stand-alone Sacrament just as the Holy Eucharist (Holy Mass) and the rest of the other Sacraments are?
- ☞ While it is highly recommended that Marriage (wedding) be celebrated within a Holy Mass, doing so is not a requirement for the Marriage (wedding) to be valid?
- ☞ There are clear liturgical guidelines for celebrating Marriage (wedding) within and without a Holy Mass, and each set of guidelines fulfills the requirements for a valid Marriage. which is: to make a couple become husband and wife before God and the Church community?
