REFLECTION

"You're not the boss of me!" We hear these words often, especially when someone feels misunderstood or pushed in the wrong direction. We resist being led when we sense that the person guiding us doesn't truly know us, doesn't listen, or may lead us astray. Deep down, we long for someone who truly understands us, someone who hears the quiet cries of our hearts, who stands at our side without judgment, and who doesn't mock or belittle us for trying to do what is right. And when we stumble, we need someone who lifts us up gently, removes our shame, and helps us return to the beautiful selves God created us to be. Today we celebrate the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, the One who is exactly this for us. Christ is the King who knows what it is to be mocked and rejected, yet responds with humble courage. He knows our hearts completely and shows us the path to Paradise. Christ is the perfect King—the One who guides, protects, and restores us. May we always let Him be the Lord of our lives.
