REFLECTION

In today's Gospel, we witness the immediate response of the apostles to Jesus' call. Recognizing the voice of the living God, they leave their nets without hesitation. Their "yes" becomes a channel of grace, first filling their own hearts, then flowing outward to others. True discipleship always moves outward. As the prayer attributed to St. Francis reminds us, "It is in giving that we receive." By following Christ's voice, loving even our enemies, and staying faithful to the path of holiness, we are sustained by the Holy Spirit and strengthened by the communion of saints. We know where this road leads. By staying the course and listening to Jesus who calls us, we are guided toward our final destination which is eternal life.
