REFLECTION

Ushering in the holiest week, Palm Sunday illuminates our journey. Jesus Christ enters Jerusalem to acclaim on a humble donkey, knowing this triumph begins his Passion. We join the celebration, waving palms and singing with joy. The tone quickly shifts to sorrow: the suffering servant, the cry from the Cross, and the reading of his Passion. Our hearts resist this, for it is not how our Savior or our lives should unfold. Yet this is our human experience. Light gives way to loss, hope to grief. Even in desolation, Jesus' trust in the Father never faltered. In joy or hardship, we are called to keep our eyes on our Redeemer, who guides us to eternal life.

Adapted from Living with Christ— March 2026- Sheryl Ann Smith (2026, March). Toronto, ON.

Did you know that?

- The same crowd that praises can also reject; so faith must go deeper than emotion?
- Following Christ means walking toward the Cross, not away from discomfort?
- Love that saves is love that sacrifices?
