REFLECTION

Today's readings invite us to reflect on our identity as a Church, rooted in the power of the Resurrection. The early Christian community, as seen in Acts, is filled with joy, healing, and growth as they boldly proclaim Christ. In the Gospel, Jesus reveals the deep unity between humanity and God through love and the gift of the Spirit. As disciples, we are called to live this love by welcoming, affirming, and uniting all people. May we open our hearts to the Spirit, so that, beyond our differences, we may truly live as one in Christ's love. Adapted from Living with Christ- May 2026- Ella Frederickton, NB

The slots are limited, and the booking is on a first-come, first-served basis. Call the co-ordinator, Diana Dsouza, at 647-922-6575, to make a reservation. Did you know that?

- ☞ Jesus' new commandment to love from John 13:34 is most often first learned at home, through the quiet, sacrificial love of mothers, all of whom we celebrate on Mother's Day today?
- ☞ St. Francis of Assisi whose 800th Jubilee we celebrate this Year of St. Francis, discovered that real renewal begins when we love others not sentimentally, but sacrificially and consistently?
- ☞ The new heaven and the new earth that the Scriptures speak of in Revelation 21:1, begin whenever we choose compassion over indifference in daily life?
