REFLECTION

All Saints Day invites us to lift our hearts with hope and gratitude. Today we celebrate the countless saints who have gone before us, ordinary people who loved God, served others, and remained faithful in the joys and challenges of life. Their witness reminds us that holiness is possible for each of us.

As we seek to follow Christ in our daily lives, may the saints encourage us on our journey and deepen our hope of one day sharing with them the fullness of life and joy in heaven.

Next year, September 2027, join Fr. Arinze, our Associate Pastor, on a 14-day pilgrimage to Italy, the Netherlands, Germany, France, Belgium, Luxembourg, and Switzerland. This faith-filled journey includes visits to many renowned churches and holy sites across Europe. Slots are limited and would be assigned on a first-come, first-served basis.

For more information or to register, see the poster in the Narthex, or call the parish office.

1. Jesus teaches that true greatness lies in humble service, and All Saints' Day reminds us that holiness is not about being admired but about living faithfully for God and others?
2. St. Francis of Assisi embraced humility and simplicity to follow Christ more closely, reminding us that the saints became holy not by seeking greatness but by surrendering themselves to God's love?
3. As we celebrate All Saints' Day today and prepare for All Souls' Day tomorrow, we remember that the saints inspire us, our departed loved ones remain in our prayers, and our Christian hope rests in Christ's promise of eternal life?
